earliest possible time. ~~(S)(u)~~

The following established Cuban sources of the Newark Office were contacted on the indicated dates: ~~(S)(u)~~

Date	Source
8/8/77	NK 7005-0A (c)
8/8/77	NK 5006-S
8/11/77	NK 5775-S

~~(S)(u)~~ The above sources advised that they have not developed as of this time any specific information about Cuban exiles carrying out terrorist activities in Venezuela. ~~(S)(u)~~ All four sources did state however, that Cuban communities in the US are very concerned and upset over recent information appearing in newspapers indicating that the CARTER administration is continuing to make overtures to the Cuban government and the most disturbing information is that the US government, particularly the US Department of State, is exchanging information regarding Cuban exile activities with the Cuban government. The foregoing mentioned sources stated that if in fact there is information being exchanged and this can be documented, they feel that the radical Cuban exile organizations in the US will initiate acts of terrorism such as bombings against the US government, in order to show their disapproval. ~~(S)(u)~~

Newark will continue to maintain close contact with sources and any specific information developed regarding instant matter will be immediately furnished to Bureau and interested offices.
